Subject: FOIA Request – M&M Woodworking Company

Dear Robin:

As per the attached authorization letter, Marsh Risk Consulting has been retained by Simpson Timber Company to investigate its historic insurance coverage. This research includes Simpson Timber Company, as well as the predecessor company, M&M Woodworking Company.

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, I am writing to request a search of the Dept of Navy records located in the National Archives, Suitland, MD, for any records relating to Simpson Timber Company and M&M Woodworking Company

We have identified the following one (1) box for review:

| Accession No | Box No |
|--------------|--------|
| 61A2526 | 29 |

We are requesting copies of any documents relating to Simpson Timber Co. or M&M Woodworking Company, including but not limited to policies, Certificates of Insurance, Binders and correspondence.

We understand that there are research and copy fees associated with this request. We are authorizing you to expend fees of up to $1,000. If it appears that the research and copy fees will exceed $1,000, please advise us and we will obtain authorization from the client for any additional fees.
